Why Are These Laws Not Enforced?

Stopping the sale of liquors for instance—jags and half jags are common, and it is an open secret that many "soft drink" saloons are selling the vilest kinds of "booze," even advertise the sale of beers and yet we have heard of no arrests—the average number of automobiles stolen daily is ten, yet not one in a hundred persons are detected or punished for the crime. Every minute in the day some hair brained dude or rough neck truck driver busts the speed record with his machine and puts in jeopardy other drivers or pedestrians, yet few, if any, of them are arrested or punished. The stopping at boulevards law is a joke, and unless an officer stands at the crossing few observe it. The vagrancy laws are never thought of as hundreds of loafers stand on the populous corners making nasty remarks as unprotected women pass, and surely not all of these are unemployed laboring men. What we need most is enforcement, not enactment of laws. There is no more assurance that the thousand additional police will better conditions, and why levy a million more taxes for their salaries?

Why Not Uniform High School Pupils?

We received a letter from a mother asking us to write another article urging the uniforming of high school pupils, especially the girls, as the boys are pretty generaly uniformed in the khaki of Uncle Sam. We have urged this many times as the true democracy of school life where the millionaire's child is garbed the same as the laborer's, and where all may feel equal. Older people may scout the idea that the children care, but the fact is they do care and every worth while pupil likes to be dressed as well as his or her comrades. The uniforms need not be costly, in fact they would be better "home made," but the color and general style should be the same. Every teacher will tell of the extravagant dress of some pupils, and the pitiful efforts of others not able to dress so finely trying to keep pace with wealthier pupils. Ballroom and party dresses are out of place in school, and detract from the studiousness of the wearers as well as their companions, and many mothers of our high school pupils have endorsed our articles on the subject. Now is the time to act, and the principals are the ones to get after.

The schools will reopen next Tuesday.

Our Homer Clemmons smiles very happily this week, all on account of a big baby boy that came to their home last issue day. Homer says he is a 20-page edition filled to the chase lines and "makes a very handsome appearance." The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or insulted to the needs of a changing neighborhood. The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both [illegible] and [illegible] mortgages and [illegible] there is no [illegible] out charge. [illegible] hundred customers in Chicago and other [illegible] states.

Put Up Every Pound of Fruit You Can Get This Summer

Delicious Jams, Jellies and Preserves made by this recipe:

Many a woman hesitates to try putting up fruit at home.

She fears she will only waste expensive materials.

It really is very simple. Just make your preserving syrup with ½ Karo (Red Label) and ½ sugar instead of sugar alone.

You can then be as sure of your results as the woman who always has "luck" with her preserving.

Nice fine, clear Karo Syrup has a natural affinity for the fruit juices. It blends the sugar with the juice—brings out the rich "fruity" flavor, and insures firm jams and jellies that never "candy" in the glass.

A well-filled fruit pantry will give you much pleasure this winter, when fresh fruits are scarce and high, if you just use Karo Syrup with your sugar.

For Cooking, Baking and Candy Making Karo (Red Label) is used in millions of homes. In all cooking and baking recipes use Karo instead of sugar. It is sweet, of delicate flavor, and brings out the natural flavor of the food.

FREE Preserving is easy when you have the sixty-eight page Corn Products Cook Book handy. Wonderful recipe—easy to follow. Beautiful illustrations. Write us today for it. It is free.

NATIONAL THEATRE

The new policy of the National Theatre, continuous performance with pictures, musical comedy and vaudeville, seems to have struck the right fancy for the Englewood residents. The theatre was well filled at every performance during the week and the shows were unusually strong for the popular prices charged.

The program the coming week, starting Monday, is composed of novelty, music and fun. The vaudeville portion will be headed by the Richard Burton Trio. When it comes to aerialists, Charles and Mayme Butters are in the class by themselves. Talk about a fun maker, Charles Stoddard, is the real cut-up. He is known as "The Forgetful Teacher." You will like him.

The photo-play bill is unusually strong. Monroe Salisbury, who is quite a favorite, will be seen in "The Man in the Moonlight." It is a dramatic production that is filled with clever acting and tells a good and interesting story. A western drama, termed "The Four Bits Man," will also be on the program. The International News weekly will show you in real life the important happenings the world over. Then to make you laugh is a comedy called "A Dog Gone Shame." The musical comedy company which has immediately become popular, will present a new comedy with music called "Back From the Beach." It is a sequel to the last production. A number of new and up-to-date songs and specialties will be introduced. They have some new dances and the costumes and scenery will be new and made especially for this production.

On Sunday a new bill will be presented. It is for the one day only and nothing that has been seen this week will be shown. The new bill thereafter will change every Monday.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

The Marlowe Hippodrome has adopted its new policy for the season of 1919-20, and beginning Monday the first of September, Labor Day, will give vaudeville and pictures every day as well as other added features and have matinees Saturday and continuous Sundays from 2 to 11 p. m. The Marlowe under the splendid management of "Doc" White aims to give the biggest and best shows on the South Side and at most reasonable prices. Every feature booked at the Marlowe is a new one or else one of the best approved that seldom plays outside of the big loop houses, and their many special bookings are at once the pleasure of their audiences and the envy of competitions as no one else secures such big attractions. They have from six to eight numbers of real vaudeville each day besides a run of fine and good pictures, many on their first run and absolutely new to the screen.

The Marlowe is at all times kept clean and well ventilated, and ladies and children attest their keen appreciation by the immense matinees. Their attractions will be found in the Englewood Times columns each week, and you may rest assured of a pleasant entertainment whenever you attend. Watch the paper for the big bills and don't miss the shows.

HALSTED THEATRE

Saturday, August 30th. One day only. Dustin Farnum in a gripping story of East and West. "A Man's Fight." It reveals Dustin Farnum in an unusual role. First in the East, as the son of a New York aristocratic family, later in Sing Sing prison, and then as a business man out in the big West. From New York's aristocracy to Sing Sing's walls—then— Each believing the other guilty, he sacrifices himself to save her and he, though innocent, pays the damning penalty. A Farnum picture is always good.

Sunday, September 7th. One day only and absolutely the first time run in the city. William Dunkin in "Smashing Barriers." This is an exceptionally strong picture and will make you sit up and take notice. It will be worth your while to come miles to see it. "Nuf-sed!"

Last but not least. Don't fail to see the first installment of our new serial "The Masked Rider," which begins Friday, September 5th, and then follow it through to the finish. It is a corker.

EMPRESS THEATRE

The Empress Theatre will re-open next Monday, September 1, with their regular season of vaudeville, performances every afternoon and evening. The house has been completely redecorated by J. P. Sullivan, the artistic decorator and every part of the house has been gone over, making it a new affair from cellar to garret as it were. The Empress "will give their patrons the very best values that can be bought in the vaudeville profession and sold at popular prices," as the genial manager Harry Mitchell puts it. The attractions for the Empress are booked personally by Mrs. J. J. Nash, general manager of the Western Vaudeville Ass'n, and he never loses a bet when it comes to booking a star for the Empress. The Empress will continue its same high class orchestra, in fact making a feature of the musical department, and will show at each performance a line of really good pictures. The popular prices will continue and everyone is guaranteed full value for every jitney they may spend at this popular and comfortable house, and we can conscientiously recommend their selections as the best on the road. Next week beginning Labor Day they will start the fall and winter scedule, and no better place can be selected to enjoy the day than at the Empress.

E. A. R. THEATRE

Friday, August 29th. Beautiful Bessie Barriscale supported by Jack Holt in "The Woman Michael Married." Michael Ordsay was a good sport, and even when the woman who had saved the life of that small boy at the seaside demanded that he marry her as a reward for her feat, Michael consented, although the woman was far below him in social standing. And then the woman disappears, and years later when she has become a famous prima donna the husband and wife meet again. Also Friday, special 2-reel Christie Comedy and Chester Outing.

Sunday, August 31st. J. Warren Kerrigan in "A White Man's Chance." He came to fight and remained to wed. His heart and fists brought him to Loveland and his smile finished the job. Also Star Comedy and Pictograph. Matinee attraction only the daring heroine, Ruth Roland in "The Tiger's Trail."

Wednesday and Thursday, September 3rd and 4th. Two big exceptional eventful days for the patrons of this neighborhood photoplay house. "The Birth of a Race" is the greatest, most massive and daring photoplay ever conceived. It is splendid in its artistry, tense, heroic, intelligent and dignified. It is the last word in realism, grandeur and dramatic art. It cost over a million dollars to make, was over two years in the making and employed the services of over 10,000 people. Shown in its entirety exactly as at the Blackstone and Playhouse where it ran for 6 months to tremendous crowds. Shown here at no advance in prices. Usual supplementary reels.

Every young, love-stricken couple should have a love insurance policy was the line of "dope" that he preached. But! Ah, BUT! When he fell in love with a girl whose affair of the heart was already covered by one of his own policies—then his preachments changed—and his tactics likewise! Sounds good, doesn't it? It IS good. TULANE THEATRE

Government Awakened

Something unusual in the way of entertainment will be the offering for Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, September 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th. It is a dramatic photoplay entitled "The End of the Road" and is one of the opening guns in the nation-wide campaign about to be waged against venereal diseases. The picture is sponsored by the United States Public Health Service for public exhibition after having done service as a means of warning in the campaign work of the War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities. It begins to appear that at last something is to be done to teach the young and the unsuspecting the danger and the ravages of venereal diseases. Up to now such subjects have been generally taboo in theatres and other public mediums. It took some such gigantic upheaval as the great war to awaken our Government to the necessity of overriding the vast ignorance prevalent in matters of sex hygiene. The United States Public Health Service feels that the time has come when as a nation we should be enlightened in the matter of venereal menace. Public Health Films will exhibit this picture as a part of the campaign.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

Ladies' Bargain Week Day Matinees.

We want our patrons to have as good a show as any two dollar attraction in town. Give them nothing but the best, that is about all Irons and Clamage, the owners and producers of all Jazz Revue which commences a week's engagement at the Englewood Theatre, week of August 31st, said when asked about their new show lately. They can now point to some dozen reasons why All Jazz Revue has met with such wonderful success on the circuit this season. Messrs. Irons and Clamage in their turn supervised every detail of the production. Thoroughly familiar with all the technique and requirements of burlesque, they gave just the proper blendings, of all elements that most insure success, the selection of artists was a matter that required deliberate consideration, but in securing Lou Powers, Margie Catlin, Pat Daly, Pearl Hamilton, Ray Kelly, Chas. Glick, Bob Wolf, the Morette Sisters and the Jazz Quartette, they put together a combination that will be hard to beat. There is a large and attractive chorus that can both sing and dance, and there are several individual dancers, whose skill is remarkable, the whirlwind dancing finale of the first act will show these dancers to be the most able exponents of all styles of dancing, on the stage today, backed up with beautiful costumes, elaborate scenery, electrical effects. This attraction is sure to prove the best seen at this theatre this season.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

The Charming Alimoniac

The charming alimoniac,
She neither toils nor spins.
She merely takes
What ex-hub. makes
Or steals or begs or wins.
She has no home to bother with,
No husbands, cooks or kids,
But free and gay
She speeds away—
Till she collides or skids!

Many people who are enjoying their summer vacation, haven't paid last year's coal bills.

Women may wear funny clothes, but they don't wear side whiskers or chew plug tobacco.

The limit has been reached—the price of bathing suits has been raised—chee! what a little thing to raise on.

Hard times, strikes or even race riots don't do much to keep little Dan Cupid or the Stork from their jobs.

Yes, it is a cold, cold world, but maybe it will be warm enough for a whole lot of us in the next, Quien sabe.

I have gone pretty far to keep up with the styles this summer, but I haven't yet brought myself to wearing liver colored sox with white shoes.

That bluff that girls have of wearing their hair over their ears don't keep them from hearing an invitation to eat ice cream.

I wonder what a baby thinks of a grown person who jabbers "goo-goo" talk to them. I bet they think they are a bunch of mutts.

If you favor the 1,000 more policeman measure, you may vote for it September 10th. You will pay for it later.

"Let us run your business or we'll wreck your property," seems the policy of some of the disorderly wrecking crews.

For Which We Are Duly Grateful

Mr. G. E. Sullivan, Editor Englewood Times, 540 W. 63rd St., Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Sir: At the annual meeting of the members of the Englewood Sunday Evening Club held on the evening of August 12th, 1919, the following resolution was unanimously adopted and the secretary was instructed to notify you.

RESOLVED—That the members of the Englewood Sunday Evening club wish to express to Mr. G. E. Sullivan, Editor of the Englewood Times, their appreciation of the manner in which the notices and articles relative to the services of the club have been conducted in the weekly issues of the paper."

Yours very truly,
J. STRACHAN, Secretary.

No Protection Against Plate Glass Smashers

Scarcely a block on 63rd St. but has one or more plate glass fronts wrecked by "strikers," or their sympathizers. H. Jaffe at 520-22 63rd St., who conducts his business as he sees fit, has had a disorderly bunch of outlaws hanging about his place for a week, and Friday night they smashed three of the plate glass fronts of his stores. The police have done nothing to disperse this gang of outlaws, or protect Mr. Jaffe, nor have they detected or prosecuted a single case on the street, where the glass has been broken. There can be no excuse for such laxity; other parts of the city are better protected, but here we have one solitarity policeman to a mile of streets yet we are the heaviest taxed district in the city. Englewood simply must organize to protect their interests or be ruled by the mob.
